

DAVID J. URAM

Of Penn Hills, age 87, died on Wednesday, May 1, 2024.

David was the beloved husband of the late Ruth R. (Roe) Uram for 61 years. He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Agnes (Makara) Uram; and his sister, Florence Voiret. He is survived by three nephews and cousins.

David was raised in Forest Hills, and earned his bachelor's degree in education. After serving as a teacher for a few years, David became employed at Westinghouse Research and Development in Churchill from where he retired.

David and Ruth were well-known trainers of therapy dogs and used them to bring comfort and joy to residents of hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and veterans' hospitals.

There will not be a visitation or service. David will be laid to rest with Ruth at William Penn Cemetery.
