Born the eldest child of the late Arthur E. Day, Sr. and the late Phyllis (McCracken) Day. Beloved wife of the late Thomas C. Molyneaux. Loving mother of Jason T. (Mahogany Thaxton) Molyneaux of Braddock. Dear sister of Kathy (the late Joe) Pajak and Arthur E. (the late Denise) Day, Jr. Preceded in death by her brother, Gary Day. Loving

Pam was a lifelong resident of Swissvale and a 1965 graduate of Swissvale High School. She worked in the service industry from the 1960's until the 1980's. In the 80's she was largely self-employed baking and decorating cakes and cleaning houses. She most recently was employed as a greeter at Giant Eagle in Edgewood Towne Center, where she worked for 20-plus years. Pam was raised a Baptist and faithfully attended church at Monroeville Assembly of God since the mid-1980's. She looked forward to spending holidays with friends and family, and creating seasonal decorations for her dining room table. She was a super-fan of cooking shows, particularly those produced locally by Arlene Williams and Chris Fennimore. She was well known for her cooking, kindness and generosity, and what she described as her "meal ministry" where she fed her co-workers, neighbors and those who were less fortunate. She will be dearly missed and forever remembered.

A Memorial Service will be held Thursday, May 16, 2024, 10:30 AM at Monroeville Assembly of God Church, 4561 Old William Penn Hwy., Monroeville, PA 15146.
