

PAUL A. McGRATH

Age 72, of Peters Township, originally of Turtle Creek, passed away surrounded by his loving family on Friday, May 10, 2024.

Paul was the beloved husband of nearly 53 years to Kathi (Belajac) McGrath; loving father of Nicki (Reid) Vance, Conni (Ben) Slagle, and Zachary (Elise) McGrath; doting grandfather of Benon, Wyatt, Lexi, Laci, Keira, Vanessa, Alyana, Gavin, Lyla, Jude, Elias, and Maizie; dear brother of Richard (Sue) McGrath, Dan (Linda) McGrath, and the late Regis "Tom" McGrath, and Anna "Trudy" McGrath. He was also preceded in death by his parents, Regis and Frances (Clements) McGrath.

Paul began his professional career with Westinghouse, in their motor division. While there, he put himself through law school. Paul then served as in-house counsel for Universal Stainless & Alloy Products, Inc. in Bridgeville where he retired in 2020. Giving of his time and expertise, Paul volunteered for many years with the Youth Commission of Peters Township, helping to provide positive, rehabilitative opportunities for local youth. After retirement, Paul spent his days consulting for Universal Stainless, golfing, and surrounding himself with his grandchildren.

Arrangements by BEINHAUER. Friends and family will be received at 2828 Washington Road, McMurray on Wednesday, May 15, 2024, 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. A Catholic funeral service will be held on Thursday 11 a.m. at the funeral home in the Beinhauer Chapel of Peace.
