

KIMBERLY ACQUARO DeBALD

Our beloved Kimberly Acquaro DeBald, 57, of Bethel Park, PA, departed to heaven on May 17, 2024 after a long and heroic battle. Kim was born on May 26, 1966 in the Brookline neighborhood of Pittsburgh PA., the daughter of Michael and Geri Acquaro.

Kim is a proud graduate of Brashear High School, Clarion University and Duquesne University where she also acquired a Master's degree in Education.

Kim's passion for teaching led her to a long and fulfilling career as a schoolteacher in the Bethel Park School District, where she devoted over three decades to nurturing young minds with kindness and patience. Kim leaves behind a legacy of love, education, and community spirit.

Kim enjoyed cooking Italian food for her family and friends, visiting wineries and thrift stores and simply floating on a raft in the pool, reading a book with her favorite beverage.

Preceded in death by her father Michael and survived by her loving husband of 28 years Jeffrey, her sons Bryan and Vincent, her sisters Kellie (Dave) Herrman, Keri (Donald) Stupka, and her mother Geri. Kim will be remembered as a loving wife, mother, sister, daughter, sister-in-law, aunt, cousin, and friend.

Services will be held at BEINHAUER FUNERAL HOME in McMurray, PA on Wednesday, May 22nd from 5:00 – 8:00 PM, Thursday from 2:00 - 4:00 and 6:00 – 8:00, PM. A 9:00 AM mass will be held at Our Lady of Hope Parish (St. Germaine) in Bethel Park and Kim will be laid to rest at Mount Lebanon Cemetery. Kim's pall bearers will be Julia Herrman and Helena, Julia, Emma, Anna and Olivia DeBald.

Kim's spirit of generosity and love will continue to inspire those who knew her. She will be deeply missed.
