

NANCY CAROL TRANTER

Age 93, of Allison Park, passed peacefully into eternity on Tuesday afternoon, May 8, 2024, in Allison Park, PA after an active and fruitful life that deeply touched many souls. All through her life, Nancy shared a special bond with her sister, Lois. She was born June 26, 1931, in Pittsburgh, PA to the late Herbert J. Teckemeyer and Lois L. (Hepplewhite) Teckemeyer, and was the youngest of three children. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, John H. Teckemeyer.

Nancy dedicated her career to public service and served faithfully for many years as a Registered Nurse for LTV Steel, Shenango, Inc., and PPG Industries, Inc., and was affiliated with the PA Dept. of State, Bureau of Professional & Occupational Affairs. Her work made a significant impact on her community, leaving a lasting legacy that will be remembered for years to come.

Nancy was a beloved friend to many, always making everyone feel valued and cherished. Her wry sense of humor brought smiles to the faces of all she encountered. Her absence will be deeply felt, but her memory will be cherished for the love and joy she brought into the lives of those around her. Her legacy of kindness and her ability to make people feel truly known and valued will forever inspire those who knew and loved her.

Throughout her life, Nancy was a fervent woman of deep faith. Her assurance in knowing the Lord gave her the comfort and peace to assure her family and friends that she would be alright and would see them again. She was an active member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Allison Park, PA. She had a zest for life, and loved her family, neighbors, and friends.

Surviving Nancy is her sister, Lois E. (Teckemeyer) Aley of Beaver Falls, PA, and her nephews, Charles R. Aley (Harriet), Douglas J. Aley (Ruth), and Glenn C. Aley; great-neices, Christine M. (Aley) Andrews (Joshua), and Amber M. Aley; a great-nephew, Dexter J. Aley (Lindsay); and a great-great-nephew, Rowan J. Aley, all of Beaver Falls, PA. Nancy will be missed dearly by her family and friends, as well as everyone who had the opportunity to know her.

It was Nancy's wish to have a private funeral service for her family, officiated by her former pastor at St. Paul's UMC, Rev. Ron Hoellein. Nancy will be laid to rest with her late husband, Herbert C. Wright, at the Ingomar United Methodist Church Cemetery in Pittsburgh, PA in a private ceremony.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 1965 Ferguson Road, Allison Park, PA 15101.
