

LINDA STEIGERWALD

Of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, died after a long period of declining health on May 5, 2024.

Beloved wife of the late Robert L. Steigerwald. Loving mother of Eddy Steigerwald and his husband Todd Butkevich. Sister of the late Edward Horn and his wife Florence Horn. Sister-in-law of Debbie Steigerwald and her partner Chuck, Eddie Steigerwald, and Richard Steigerwald of Pittsburgh. Cherished aunt of Amy Steigerwald, Jason Steigerwald, Debbie Horn, Tammy Horn, Steve Horn, Eddie Horn, Cindy Yunk (Horn), and the late Kimmy Horn of Pittsburgh.

Family and friends will honor and remember Linda's life by gathering for visiting hours at SCHELLHAAS FUNERAL HOME, May 31, 2024, from 4-6 p.m. with a brief service at 5:45 p.m. (388 Center Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15229.)

Linda was born and raised in Pittsburgh. She met her late husband, Robert, and they married July 3, 1971. In August of 1981, they welcomed their son Eddy to the family. She worked at the Heinz Factory in Pittsburgh for her entire career, doing everything she could to keep the family thriving.

In Pittsburgh, she loved Howard's Tavern, where she was known and beloved by all. She found a chosen family there and was able to enjoy life with trips with new friends.

Linda moved to Boston in 2021, to be close to her son Eddy, and fell in love with the city. She enjoyed traveling, meeting new people, exploring, and especially enjoyed her 2015 trip to Hawaii with Eddy, Todd, and his family.

She will be dearly missed, in a way that can't be replaced.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb