

MARJORIE "MARGE" (RAUH) ZELLER

Age 80, of Upper St. Clair, passed away peacefully on Friday, May 24, 2024. Marge was the loving mother of Debbi (Scott) Bishop, of Upper St. Clair, and Michael (Candice) Zeller, of Germantown, MD; adoring "Grandma Z" of Matthew Bishop, Topher Bishop, Luke Bishop, Colleen Cunningham, Josh Zeller, and Alex Zeller; dear sister of the late Pat (the late Peter) Schroeder; and aunt of Ryan, Jen, Tyler, and Ravi. Preceded in death by her beloved parents, Warren Edward and Elizabeth (Meyer) Rauh.

Marge enjoyed a long career at Blackbox Corporation, as customer service team leader of the international department, which resulted in her having friends all over the world. She even had the opportunity to travel to France. Marge was an avid Pittsburgh sports fan (any and all teams), and particularly enjoyed going to Pirates games with her friends and grandkids. She loved watching her grandkids participate in their various sports and activities, and especially looked forward to cheering on Matthew at his Miracle League baseball games. She was always excited about the annual family beach trip, where she loved to read, watch the grandkids having fun, and relax.

Arrangements by BEINHAUER, 2828 Washington Road, McMurray, 15317. Marge's wishes were to be cremated and privately laid to rest with her parents. If desired, donations in Marge's memory are suggested to the Miracle League of the South Hills (<https://www.miracleleaguesouthhills.org/donate.html>).
