

ALAN H. BUNCHER

Age 78, of Gorham, Maine, passed away peacefully on May 21, 2024. He led a well-lived life.

He is survived by his loving wife, Barbara Buncher of Gorham, ME, and his large family of Seth and Kathryn Buncher of Woodstock, NY, Marc and Kristen Buncher of Southlake, TX, Jeff Mueller of Crestwood, MO, Mike and Carrie Mueller of Chesterfield, MO, Jen Anastos of Plymouth, MA, and Michelle and Craig Gwinn of Newfields, NH. Alan was also a cherished grandfather of fourteen.

Alan grew up in the Squirrel Hill neighborhood of Pittsburgh and had a fulfilling career in journalism. He started his career as a paper boy and worked his way up to publisher. His commitment to his profession was unwavering and his dedication left a lasting impact on those around him.

A Memorial Service welcoming friends and family will be held on June 7, 2024, from 10-11AM at the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church at 114 Main Street in Kennebunk, ME. There will also be a gathering for friends and family from 11AM-12PM in the Parish Hall.

"A loving husband, father, grandfather and friend, tender and kind, what a beautiful memory you've left behind."

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb