

EDWARD STEPHEN VITUNIC

Edward Stephen Vitunic, of Pittsburgh, born April 15, 1944, died May 23, 2024. Survived by spouse, Celeste Vitunic (DiBernardo); daughter, Diane Vitunic; son, Gregory Vitunic and spouse Emma Reznic; son Brian Vitunic and partner Alexis Menten; and grandchildren, Tenaya Vitunic Holland and Ava Vitunic. Son of the late Edward William Vitunic and the late Elsie Hannah Vitunic (Wilkes). Brother of Janet Vitunic, David Vitunic, and Susan Franczyk (Thomas). Uncle to Abigail Opst, Sarah Opst and David Opst. A graduate in mechanical engineering from the University of Dayton, Edward also completed US Air Force undergraduate pilot training. Alongside his 20-year career at the Duquesne Light Company, Captain Vitunic was a member of the Air National Guard, 911th Air Refueling Wing, and piloted the F-102 Delta Wing Supersonic Interceptor. He was an avid organizer of travels with his family across North America, sometimes in his own piloted Cessna. He was a builder and designer, music lover, and enthusiast of dogs (Toby, Clancy), horses, sport and performance. He said of his life that it was a good one.

Your love, remembrance and friendship will be welcome at a gathering at NEELY FUNERAL HOME, 2208 Mt. Royal Blvd., Glenshaw on Saturday, June 1 from 5 to 8 pm.
