

NATALIE ANN CARDIELLO

Beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, age 63, of Carnegie, left this world on May 25, 2024.

A Life of Generosity and Devotion.

Born on August 4, 1960, Natalie grew up in Ross Township, PA, where she developed a passion for justice in helping others. She pursued her education with determination, eventually earning her law degree from Duquesne University. She established a distinguished career in law and business as corporate counsel, law firm associate, proprietor of several corporations, and as a federal bankruptcy trustee. Known for her unwavering dedication to her clients, Natalie brought compassion and expertise to every case, earning the respect and admiration of her peers.

Natalie married Frank, with whom she shared a beautiful journey of love, partnership, and adventure. Together they raised three wonderful children: Jonathan, Alexandra (Aaron) Crown, and Christopher and granddaughter Allison. As a mother, Natalie was a constant source of support, wisdom, and unconditional love. She nurtured her children with grace and instilled in them the values of kindness, integrity, and perseverance.

Natalie is also survived by her siblings, Patricia (Bob) Stanisha, Christine (Tim) Triplett, and Tom Lutz; nieces, Olivia, Heather, and Sage, who will all remember her as a devoted sister, aunt, and cherished friend.

Beyond her professional achievements and family life, Natalie was a beacon of generosity and friendship. Her giving spirit touched the lives of many, and she was always ready to lend a hand, offer a kind word, or provide a shoulder to lean on.

A Memorial Mass to celebrate Natalie's life will be held at St. Raphael the Archangel Parish, Margaret of Scotland Church on June 15, at 10:00 am. A Celebration of Life gathering will follow. Family, friends, and business associates are all welcome to attend. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Research Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105 (www.stjude.org) and the American Cancer Society, PO Box 862 Carnegie, PA 15106 (www.amp.cancer.org). Arrangements entrusted to SCHEPNER-MCDERMOTT FUNERAL HOME, INC., 165 Noble Ave., Crafton.
