St. Kilian's was a very important part of Uncle Frank's life. He volunteered in many different capacities, including the sacrist, eucharistic minister and St. Vincent DePaul Society. Frank was also very proud of his service to his country, serving in the US Army during the Korean War. He grew up in his family's business, Mandl's Bakery, and learned the trade of a baker from his father. When Mandl's closed, he continued his love for baking with Soergel's. Upon his retirement as a baker, he began another career at the Butler Auto Auction. Frank was loved by all and could make a friend anywhere he went.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105, www.stjude.org.
