

DONALD H. FUGENT

"DON"

Donald "Don" H. Fugent (Foog to his friends) was born in Pittsburgh in 1932 and died June 9, 2024, at the age of 91, at home, surrounded by family. He joined the Armored Tank Division of the Army after high school in 1950. Don attended Carnegie Tech and graduated with an Industrial Design degree. After working at Westinghouse, Don opened his own trade show/exhibits business, traveling the world. In addition, his restaurant and bar in downtown Pittsburgh, "Wet Your Whistle", was another dream come true.

Don's passions included racing motorcycles and stock cars starting at age 16. He raced in numerous flat track motorcycle, hill climbs and stock car events, and won multiple PA and Ohio motocross and flat track championships. In his eighties, and after a 40-year break from racing, Don won a regional stock car race in FL. He also flew his own aircraft and enjoyed going to airshows nationwide. Don had a wonderful, creative and adventurous life, and rode his motorcycle until he was 90 years old. Don said, "If you're not riding, you're not living!" Keep on riding, Foog.
