

JORDAN COYNER

Another year has passed and the silence from not hearing your voice or your laugh that always filled our hearts with joy continues

And that gaping hole in our hearts remains knowing you were taken far too soon!

Everyday is challenging without you as we continue clinging to the comfort in our memories until we are together again.

We feel you watching over us as our eternal angel and we appreciate all the "23's" that come our way.

Hope you have found Kali and you are giving her all the long awaited for hugs!!

We Love you endlessly and miss you even more,
Mom, Dad, Shane, Grandma, Aunt Lora & Uncle Char
