

CATHERINE (CAROLYN) NESBIT

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend, Catherine (Carolyn) Nesbit passed away June 21, 2024, at the age of 90. She is survived by her sons, James (Kerri) and granddaughter Erin, Greg (Pam) and granddaughter Melissa, and Scott (Amy), as well as numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, James C. Nesbit; her daughter-in-law, Beverly; two brothers, Mike and John Koban; and sisters, Helen Kovalchick, Mary Falsetti, Sue Novoselski, Anna Opina, Betty Bodnar, Margie Shish, and Eleanor DeMichie.

The daughter of Vasil and Anna (Peceniak) Koban and the youngest of ten children, she was born in Sagamore, Pennsylvania, before moving to Plum where she met and fell in love with her husband, Jim. She was committed to her family and took great pride in their accomplishments as well as her Slovak heritage. She loved spending time laughing with her family and many close friends as well as the occasional glass of chardonnay.

Carolyn also worked for many years as a perception therapist at Regency Park Elementary School where she encouraged her students to do their best.

She will be remembered for her kind and generous disposition, her huge heart and her beautiful smile.

Friends received, Wednesday, 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. at SOXMAN FUNERAL HOMES, LTD./ROTH CHAPEL, 7450 Saltsburg Road (at Universal Road), Penn Hills. A Service will be held, Thursday, 10:00 a.m. in Presbyterian Church of Plum Creek. Interment in Plum Creek Cemetery.
