

VERA COVINGTON

Vera Covington slipped into eternity on June 17, 2024. Born January 14, 1931, she worked tirelessly helping others and spreading joy and the gospel through words, songs, and kind deeds.

The youngest daughter of Annie and James Lacey Cooper, Vera was born in Braddock, PA. She was educated in the Braddock School District, where she earned a high school diploma. After marrying, Mrs.

Covington made her home in West Mifflin, PA. She raised four children: Gary Covington (deceased), Donald Covington, Brenda Covington, and Sandra (Covington) Thompson.

Mrs. Covington will be missed by her three children; sister, Laura Richardson; daughter-in-law, Celeste Covington; grandchildren: Kira Covington, Nykia (Covington) Tillman, Kelvin Covington, Antonio Thompson, and Christiana Cates; great-grandchildren: Derrick Tillman, Jr., Noah Tillman, Danielle Tillman, Kelsey Covington, and Nylah Covington; nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, friends, and a host of others whose lives she touched.

A public viewing will be held 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Monday, July 1, 2024, at HOUSE OF LAW FUNERAL HOME in Penn Hills, PA. A private funeral service and burial will follow.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb