

THOMAS C. PAULIN

Thomas C. Paulin, affectionately known as Tom, passed away peacefully at the age of 58 on Saturday, June 29, 2024, in Pittsburgh, PA. Surrounded by his loving family, Tom left this world with the same warmth and kindness he shared throughout his life.

Together, they built a life filled with love and joy. Tom was a proud and loving father to Elizabeth Paulin and Emma (Tyler) Workman. He is now joyfully reunited with his daughter, Sarah Paulin, who predeceased him. His legacy lives on in his grandchildren, Liam, Paisley, and Madalyn, who lovingly called him Pap Pap.

Family was the cornerstone of Tom's life. He relished every moment spent with them, whether it was sharing laughter during good times or providing comfort during challenging times. His family was his greatest priority and source of pride.

Tom found tranquility on the golf course, a place where he nurtured patience, formed lasting friendships, and enjoyed the serenity of the greens.

His professional life was marked by an unwavering commitment to public service. Over a distinguished 37-year career, Tom made significant contributions to the City of Pittsburgh. His exemplary dedication, integrity, and professionalism earned him the respect and admiration of his peers, superiors, and the community he served. In recognition of his exceptional service, Mayor Ed Gainey proclaimed February 23, 2024, as "Tom Paulin Day." His life was an inspiration, leaving an indelible impact on all who knew him.

Tom drew immense strength and solace from those he loved deeply. He cherished every day and found camaraderie and support among his PC Tribe brothers in the Man Up to Cancer organization.
