

ROBERT L. "CRITTER" SMITH

On Wednesday, June 26, 2024. Preceded in death by his parents, William and Paulette (Tarnek). Survived by siblings, Paul (Carolyn) Smith, Karen (David) Rubolino and Sharon (Daniel) DelBianco; devoted "Funcle" to nieces and nephews Amiee (Tim) Lesko, Scott Smith, Isabella Rubolino and Joe DelBianco; great-niece and nephew, Irelyn and Walker Lesko. Crittler lived a full and active life and embraced every moment. In his younger years, he enjoyed skydiving, playing on the Carnegie Fighting Hornets hockey team, learning to paint with Bob Ross, dressing as a clown for charity and surprisingly was in a local production of the Nutcracker appearing as Uncle Drosselmeyer! He enjoyed fishing and camping and looking for Bigfoot! He was the Steward at Little Jim's Club in Carnegie where he was most generous with his time and talents. He played Santa for countless years! He had tremendous friends who will deeply miss his welcoming smile. The greatest question he leaves us with, "What does he wear beneath that kilt?" Please raise a toast to the Man, the Myth and the Legend, The Dawg, Robert "Crittler" Smith. Arrangements have been entrusted to the SZAFRANSKI-EBERLEIN FUNERAL HOME, INC. Per Crittler's wishes, there will be no public visitations. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held in St. Raphael the Archangel Parish, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church on Tuesday, July 9, 2024, at 10:30 a.m.

www.szafranski-eberleinfuneralhome.com

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb