

ILONA CSORBA

July 4, 1927 - June 19, 2024

Age 96, talented sculptor in stone and bronze, and wife of Hungarian Freedom Fighter, Francis S. Csorba (d. 2006, Pgh. PA), who fled with their two daughters, seven and five, from communist-occupied Hungary in 1956 to the United States, died in Sacramento, California on June 19, 2024. Matriarch of four generations of the Csorba family, Ilona was mother of Helena, Mrea, Francis (Susanne), and Csilla; grandmother of Anthony Colon, Lilla Heyden,

Anton Favorini-Csorba (Sarah Larson), Francesca-Favorini-Csorba, Lilla Katalynn (Dustin) Motes, Kristen Dawn (Chris) Prichard, Valerie Ann Csorba, Adeline Jacqueline Csorba, Chanel Zagon (Mitch) Jones, and Zac Zagon; great-grandmother of Alex Colon, Dillan Nudi, Jenó Favorini-Larson, Noemi Favorini-Larson, Silver Motes, Violet Motes, Destry, John, Lauzarus, and Alita. Ilona leaves a proud legacy of strength, perseverance, and artistry.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb