

SIROOS SAMADANI M.D.

Siroos Samadani M.D. passed away peacefully on July 2, 2024, in Winter Springs, FL. Born in Zanjan, Iran on July 28, 1938, he was the son of Rahim and Bahereh Samadani. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Arlene; daughters Shirin Samadani (Jamie Hazard) and Serena Miller (Darby); and grandson, Kieran. Also surviving are his sisters, Fereshteh Samadani of San Rafael, CA and Flora

Khosravi of San Diego, CA. He graduated from the University of Tehran and came to the U.S. in 1967 to complete residencies in General and Cardiovascular surgery. He went on to practice cardiovascular surgery mainly at Shadyside Hospital but also at Forbes Regional, Columbia, and West Penn hospitals, retiring in 2002. He will be remembered for his surgical skills, dedication to medicine and compassion for his many patients.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb