

RAYMOND PAUL ROSLONSKI

Raymond Paul Roslonski, age 78, of Whitehall, passed away peacefully on July 13, 2024. Born on September 2, 1945, in Pittsburgh, PA, he is the son of the late Raymond and Eleanor Roslonski. He is preceded in death by his late wife, Kathleen R. Roslonski.

Loving brother to Thomas (Denise) Roslonski and Michael (Kathleen) Roslonski. He is also survived by nieces and nephews. He will be missed dearly by all who knew and loved him.

Raymond was an avid fisherman, enjoying his many vacations to Canada to do what he loved. He also took great pleasure in playing cards, as well as rooting for Pittsburgh sports teams, especially the Pittsburgh Penguins. After contracting polio at the age of 5, Ray stayed at the DT Watson Institute under the care of Dr. Jonas Salk for many years. Despite his crippling affliction with polio, Raymond participated in basketball, baseball, football, golf, and bowling throughout his lifetime. He also attended and eventually was a counselor at Camp Easter Seals. Ray took great pride in owning his own business, Roslonski Optical.

A Memorial Mass will be held at St. Germaine Church, 7003 Baptist Rd., Bethel Park on Saturday, July 20, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. Arrangements were entrusted to PITTSBURGH CREMATION AND FUNERAL CARE, McMurray. In lieu of flowers, make a donation to the Leukemia Lymphoma Society or pay someone's tab.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb