

SARAH KATHERINE ELSIE (BRUCE, MORAN, TRAUTMAN) COLEMAN

Sarah Katherine Elsie (Bruce, Moran, Trautman) Coleman passed away peacefully on May 14, 2024, at the age of 92.

Sarah, known as Kitty, was a loving mother and friend. She will be remembered for her warm smile, her strength, her care for others, and her love for her family.

Born November 23, 1931, to Zachariah Hall Bruce and Laura Mae (née Eakin), in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Kitty was one of six children. She is predeceased by her full sister Eleanor Keffer and half siblings John and Franklin Bruce, Hazel Belle Deemer, and Dorothy Patterson.

Kitty married William Joseph Moran, Sr. in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1951 and they are survived by their children, William Joseph Moran Jr. of Westminster, South Carolina, Alan Stewart Moran and wife Pamela (née Boor) of Tallahassee, Florida, and Gregory Paul Moran and wife Deborah (née Rademacher) of Crete, Illinois.

Kitty and Ronald R. Trautman married in 1962 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, before moving to Chicago, Illinois in 1974. They were predeceased by daughter Sharon Rose Trautman and survived by daughter Cynthia Renée Stoner (née Trautman) and husband James Owen Stoner of Queensbury, New York.

After Ronald's passing in 1987, Kitty settled in Stuart, Florida where she married John W. Coleman in 1995.

A memorial service will be held in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on Friday July 26 at 12 p.m. when her ashes will be interred with her husband Ronald Trautman at the Allegheny County Memorial Park.

Her full obituary is available online at www.sbfuneralhome.com/obituaries/Sarah-Katherine-Elsie-Coleman?obId=31706005.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb