

FLORENCE A. (BAKER) BAUMANN

Formerly of East McKeesport, age 94, passed away on Saturday, July 20, 2024, at Hempfield Manor.

Flo was born on December 14, 1929, in Pittsburg, CA, the daughter of the late William F. and Margaret (Miller) Baker.

She was the loving mother of William "Butch" (Judy Falcon) Baumann of Trafford, Forest Lee (Janet) Baumann of Murrys ville, Daniel (Joanne) Baumann of Irwin and Linda (Kenny) Louie of Glendora,

CA.

Flo was the grandmother of Jason (Shiree) Baacke, Bill (Brooke) Baumann, Lori (Steve) Pazzabon, Kate (Ryan) Kwiecinski, Kim (Jim) Hargreaves, Amy (Chris) Faith, Andrew Baumann and Samantha Louie.

Flo was the great-grandmother of Stella Baumann, Beckett Kwiecinski, Logan Pazzabon, Sloan Kwiecinski, Jaxon Baacke, Sydney Faith, Leah Baacke, Serena Kwiecinski, Mia Pazzabon, Bryce Faith, Penn Hargreaves, Margot Baumann, Brennen Kwiecinski, Quinn Hargreaves and Jett Baacke.

Flo is also survived her sister, Esther (Tony) Suppa and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, Flo was preceded in death by her sister Ann (Danny) Mainiero, her infant sister, Margaret Jane Baker, and her brothers, William E. (Ruth) Baker and Robert L. (Betty Lou) Baker.

Flo was an avid fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers and University of Pittsburgh. She enjoyed watching any and all types of sports, turning down the sound on TV and listening to Bill Hillgrove, the late Myron Cope and the late Tunch Ilkin. She also enjoyed reading any book written about Pittsburgh sports legends.

Flo worked countless jobs, too many to mention and, at times, worked more than one job. Her work ethic, loyalty, and devotion to family along with many other traits have been instilled in her children. Flo was fiercely dedicated to her children and her family. No matter the event or activity in which her children were involved, Flo was there. She has lovingly been called The General, The Commandant, The Czar and The Warden. But she would agree her greatest accomplishment in her 94 years is being called Mother, Mother-in-Law, Grandma, Great-Grandma, Sister, Sister-in-law and Aunt.
