

RICK M. FALCK

It is with great sorrow that the family of Rick M. Falck, age 61, of Ingram Boro announce his unexpected passing on July 16, 2024, after suffering a heart attack.

Rick was the beloved husband of Kelly Lynn (Schaldenbrand) Falck. He was a devoted father and friend to Maxwell and Liam Falck.

Rick was preceded in death by his father, Raymond C. Falck, Jr.; his mother, Doris M.

Yeager; and brother, Raymond Falck.

He is survived by his sisters, Sharon Wilson and Cindy (Jim) Ross; his brother, Chuck; as well as his daughters, Michelle and Natalie Falcone.

Rick was a cherished uncle to the late Richard Dichiera, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Rick was a devoted Christian and a die-hard Pittsburgh Steelers fan. He was strong-willed and stubborn at times, but he also had an enormous heart and wonderful sense of humor. Rick was generous, loyal, and brave. He was clever and full to the brim with knowledge he gained through his life experiences. Because of the soft spot in his heart for animals, Rick was known to many of his friends as the dog whisperer. He will be surely missed by his dogs, Larry Fine, Edgar Poe and Tallulah Sunshine.

Rick will be remembered for the times shared with friends and family. He truly loved each of them - and if you knew him, you felt it. When God called him home Rick left his worldly life with dignity, strength, and love for those who went before him. He will be dearly missed.

In honor of Rick's wishes, there will not be a viewing, but rather a Celebration of Life Service at Church of the Nativity (33 Alice St., Pittsburgh, PA 15205) where he served as a lay minister. All who wish to celebrate Rick's life can join us on September 8, 2024, at 1p.m.

As Rick prioritized finding joy in life and sharing it with others, the family asks that you do the same - go out and do something that brings you real joy and share it with those around you.
