Sister M. Therese Vaulet (Sister M. Florita), a Sister of Saint Francis of the Neumann Communities (Millvale) died on Sunday, July 21, 2024, at The Waters of Wexford. She celebrated her 102nd birthday in May of this year. She was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Loretto A. Lorenz Vaulet; and her siblings, Loretto, Jeanne, Joseph, Virginia and James. She is survived by a sister-in-law, Mildred (Mid) Vaulet, in Butler, PA and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and a cousin, along with many friends, and her Religious Community. Sister Therese was born in Butler, PA, and entered the Millvale Franciscan Community on September 8, 1939 from St. Peter Parish. She attended classes at Mount Mercy (Carlow University) and Duquesne University, obtaining a BS in Music Education and a Master's Degree in Music Education from Duquesne. She enriched her education over many years, taking summer theology courses at Mt. Alvernia, and religious education classes in Johnstown and many other places. She loved to learn. Her ministry included grade school teaching until 1954, followed by high school teaching from 1965-69. From 1978-88, she was principal of St. Joseph School (Johnstown Catholic) in Johnstown. Returning to the Pittsburgh area in 1969, Sister Therese taught English and music at Mt. Alvernia High School in Pittsburgh for ten years. Over the years, her love of music led her to conduct children's and adult choirs, give piano lessons and direct operettas and choral presentations. In 1976, Sister Therese received an award for Outstanding Leaders in Elementary and Secondary Education (US Dept. of Education) followed by Teacher of the Year Award (1977) from the American Catholic War Veterans. Sister Therese's ministries after 1988 included campus ministry at Indiana University of PA (St. Thomas More Parish, Newman Center) public relations and activities in the 1990's for her community, and liturgy Coordinator at Mt. Alvernia from 1998-2019. Sister Therese continued her liturgical ministry when the Sisters of St. Francis moved to The Waters of Wexford in 2019. Sister Therese shared her guidelines for living a long life: be positive, be around young people, keep on learning, and play and enjoy music in your life. She did them all, and her love of music permeated her very being. She sang the song of her life as a family member, a Franciscan Sister and friend to all. Her life was a symphony of praise to God and all creation. We thank God for the many ways she inspired us all to sing and celebrate the music of our lives. The Sisters of St. Francis are grateful to the staff at The Waters of Wexford and Bethany Hospice for their compassionate care for Sister Therese. Viewing will be held on Friday, July 26, 2024, at St. Aidan Parish, St. Alexis Church, 10090 Old Perry Highway, Wexford, from 10:00 AM until the time of the Funeral Mass at 11:00 AM.
