Gerry's faith and belief in God and Jesus were strong, and she raised her family as Catholic. As she started to have health issues five years ago, she proved to us all how tough and resilient she really was in her small 5' tall body. As all her grandchildren grew up, they all began to be taller than her, so they used a term of endearment for her as "fun-sized Nunny". Yesterday, July 25, surrounded by her family, Gerry peacefully left us to be with God, to join the love of her life

Ralph D., and others who have gone before her. was the great woman behind he Ralph D. She was a homemaker, behind her Gerry successful husband Ralph D. retail sales C.P.R. and First Aid Instructor, volunteer, ne and her husband taught numerous cl specialist, and She classes throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, which included police officers, firefighters, doctors, dentists, nurses, lifeguards, elder care workers, churches, college students, Boy Scout Troops, Girl Scout Troops, pharmacists, etc. She also taught for years at the Community College of Allegheny County.
