

MARIAN S. JONES

April 11, 1916 - July 29, 2024

Marian Schooley Jones, 108, of Upper St. Clair, Pennsylvania, died at Friendship Village of South Hills, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Born and raised in Trucksville, Pennsylvania, Marian was the daughter of Joseph Byron and Jane Nixon Schooley. Marian was a graduate of Kingston Area High School and Wyoming Seminary, Dean School of Business. Prior to marriage, Marian was employed as a secretary for the Department of Agriculture in the Wilkes Barre office. She was a member of the Trucksville United Methodist Church. Preceding her in death, in addition to her parents, were her husband Sheldon Jones, Jr., David N. Schooley, brother, and Ruth Schooley Woolbert, sister, and husband Fred. Surviving are her son, Sheldon Jones III and wife, Karen; granddaughters, Suzanne J. Sandusky and husband, Glen, Christine J. Robinson and husband, Paul; great-grandchildren Jackson and Benjamin Sandusky and Taylor Robinson; nieces, Jane Karpiak and Sara Balcerek.

She will be buried next to her beloved husband in Jonestown Cemetery, Jonestown, Pennsylvania. Memorial donations, if desired, may be made to the Friendship Village Employees Fund, 1290 Boyce Road, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15241.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb