

DR. ROSE MARY DAGEN

Age 75, of Upper St. Clair, formerly of Waynesboro, PA, passed away peacefully after a prolonged cancer battle on Friday, August 16, 2024. Rose was the beloved wife of 28 years to Dr. Richard Frank; loving mother of John Samuel (Sherry) Lois, and Henry Lois; loving stepmother of Joseph Frank and Nicholas (Erin) Frank; grandmother of Ella and Leah Frank; dear sister of Wilmer (Mim) Dagen, James Dagen, Dr. Dan (Kerry) Dagen, and Eunice (Tim) Beachy; and sister-in-law of Ronald (the late Marsha) Frank. Rose is also survived by her former spouse, Dr. John Lois. She was preceded in death by her parents Paul and Lois Dagen.

Born in Lancaster, PA, Rose graduated from Atmore High School, and went on to Atmore School of Nursing. She then attended Oklahoma State University where she earned her bachelor's degree, and Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree. She completed her cardiology residency at Allegheny General Hospital, before settling in Waynesboro, where she had a successful practice, holding dual board certifications in internal medicine and cardiology. She retired in 2019, and enjoyed spending time with Frank and their family, as well as working outside in her flower garden. She will be dearly missed.

The family would like to thank Canterbury Place for the exceptional, compassionate care they provided to Rose in her final days.

Arrangements by BEINHAUER, 2828 Washington Road, McMurray, 15317, where family and friends will be received on Thursday 10 a.m.-12 p.m., a memorial service will be held at 12 p.m., with a reception to immediately follow in the Beinbauer Community Room.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations are suggested to the American Cancer Society.
