

ANN SOSKE

Ann Soske, born on February 3, 1936, in Oakland, CA, passed away on August 19, 2024, in Fox Chapel, PA. A dedicated mother and wife, Ann inspired countless students as a school teacher early in her life, and was known for her unwavering positivity and ability to see the good in everyone.

Ann cherished staying connected with her friends, and was deeply involved in her church, where her spirit of community shined brightly. She was married to Paul for nearly 54 years, who was her lifelong partner in adventure and love. Ann is survived by her husband, Paul Soske; and her son, Andrew Soske; and daughter, Linnea (Michael) Kuberry; as well as her beloved grandchildren, Emmet Kuberry and Gwendolyn Kuberry.

She will be remembered not only for her contributions to education and her adventurous spirit, but also for her deep love for her family and friends.
