

LYNN ANN (RALETICH) KELLINGTON

Lynn Ann Kellington (Raletich), passed away peacefully at her home Wednesday morning, August 21, 2024, of natural causes at the age of 72, accompanied by her husband, William Kellington.

Lynn was born September 14, 1951 to George and Jean Ann Raletich (Gorski), whom she admired and loved in the way an only child can. She graduated from South Side High School in Pittsburgh, where she met the love of her life and husband of 54 years, William (Bill) Kellington. After Bill's time in Vietnam, the couple started their own family and gave Lynn her true purpose of being a mother and grandmother. Her door was open to family day or night, and could be frequently found, if not at the casino playing the slots, but at her dining room table playing Parcheesi, Yahtzee or Scrabble with her husband, Bill.

Her family will miss her love and affection for not only them, but for her way of telling stories of growing up on the South Side of Pittsburgh, and her willingness to always stand by their side no matter the circumstances.

Lynn is survived by her husband Bill Kellington, her two children, Alisa LaPiana (John) and Aaron Kellington (Dawn), and her five grandchildren, who lovingly referred to her as their Mimi, Garrett Lapiana (Sara), Josh LaPiana (Chrissy), Kaitlyn Kellington, Claire LaPiana, and Brooke Kellington, and her first great-grandson Lane LaPiana.
