

JOSEPH N. BARTOSKI

Joseph N. Bartoski, 85, of Tarpon Springs, FL and formerly of Monroeville, PA, passed away on August 20, 2024. He is the son of Joseph and Helen (Songaila) Bartoski. He was born in Kingston, Pennsylvania August 12, 1939. He was a graduate of Delhaas High School in Bucks County and Rider College where he received his BS in Business Administration with a major in Accounting. Joe worked for Sears and Roebuck as a Comptroller for over 30 years before leaving to create his own company. He became a partner in MR. WATERHEATER selling water heaters in the Pittsburgh area.

Joe was a retired LtCol in the USAF reserve. He served on active duty during the Vietnam conflict and upon leaving active service, became an auditor for the USAF reserve component traveling through the US performing government audits.

Surviving is his brother Thomas Bartoski (Carol) of Camp Hill, PA. He is also survived by two nephews, Thomas in Delaware and David in Texas as well as five grand-nephews and nieces.

Joe's family will be celebrating his life privately. His interment will be in St. Ignatius Cemetery in Pringle, PA.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb