

ROBERT CLAY STEPHENSON

Robert Clay Stephenson passed away on August 13, 2024, in Columbia, SC. Bob was born to the late Martha L. (Clay) and Leroy V. Stephenson on September 21, 1938, in Meadville, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Meadville High School (1956) and Allegheny College (1962), where he met his wife, the late Judith R. Trohaugh. Bob enjoyed a successful career of nearly half a century in commercial real estate and economic development in the Pittsburgh area, where he and Judy raised their family and enjoyed many warm friendships, golf outings, and weekends in the Laurel Mountains. He is survived by his brother, Jim (Carolyn); his children, Scott (Donna), Eric (Lisa), and Cyndi; and seven grandchildren. Bob loved Pittsburgh and his native Western Pennsylvania. Memorial gifts may be made to the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy (<https://waterlandlife.org>) or the Heinz History Center (HeinzHistoryCenter.org).

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb