

RALPH ARGOTTI

After a long battle with lung disease, Ralph Argotti, age 76, of North Chesterfield died Aug. 28, 2024, at VCU Medical Center in Richmond.

Born Oct. 23, 1947, in Corpus Christi, TX, he was the youngest son of the late George Argotti and Guadalupe Chavez Argotti. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by sisters, Mary (Manuel) Reyes and Felipa Ruslen; and brothers Gerry and Leonard Argotti.

He is survived by his wife, Cora Argotti, of North Chesterfield; his daughter, Mikayla Argotti of Tacoma, WA.; his son, Jacob Argotti, grandson Kaleb Argotti, and granddaughter Laiken Argotti, of Pittsburgh, PA. He also is survived by one brother, Frank Argotti; two sisters, Guadalupe Zapata and Delores Argotti; and many nieces and nephews in the Pittsburgh area.

Ralph worked in the printing industry for many years and was a skilled carpenter and craftsman. He loved his family, his pets and tinkering in his workshop. He will be missed by many.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.
