

CHARLES A. BROWN

Charles A. Brown, 82, passed away peacefully on Aug. 25, 2024, in Edison, NJ. Born in Chicago, he lived in Pittsburgh for most of his life. Charlie was a prominent local architect and a devoted man of faith. Charlie formed the Brenenborg Brown Group where he specialized in church/nonprofit building design. He was active in professional societies including the Pittsburgh Construction Specification Institute and his church, including ministry and leadership. After retirement, he was the full-time caregiver for his wife, who suffers from Alzheimer's. Charlie had a quiet, undemanding presence, yet his influence was deeply felt by all who knew him.

Charlie was predeceased by his parents, daughter, Heather, and brother, Gorden. He is survived by his wife, Marie; brother, Donald, and brother-in-law, Chris; his sister-in-law, Jean; his son, Alex, and daughter-in-law, Priscilla; his son-in-law, Craig, and daughter-in-law, MaryJo; his beloved grandchildren, August, Forest, Rowan, William, Parker and Erica; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. He is remembered as a man of humble integrity, abundant kindness, and dedication to serving others.

A memorial service will be held at 11 am Sept. 21, 2024, at the First Baptist Church of Crafton, PA. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the First Baptist Church of Crafton or the Alzheimer's Association.
