

JAMES G. HELLMANN

James G. Hellmann, 95, of Dade City, FL, and formerly of Ingram, PA, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 1, 2024. He was preceded in death by his parents, siblings, and the love of his life, and his wife of 58 years, Betty.

He is survived by his current wife, Noreene, with whom he shared a great love and bond, and for which the family will always remain grateful; his children, Gary (Donna) and Daniel (Pamela); his grandchildren, Lauren (Brian), Ashley, Megan, Greg (Brittany), Devon, and Alyssa (Jonathan); his great-grandchildren, Ethan, Lucy, Isaac, Max, Grant, James, and Raegan; his stepchildren, Tim (Linda), Tammy, Ronnie, and Ryan (Cara); and many step grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

James was an executive, and the last remaining employee with the Gulf Oil Corporation, globally headquartered in Pittsburgh, three-term mayor of Ingram Borough, Ingram Volunteer Firefighter, Founder of the Ingram Ambulance Service, long-time Rotary Club member with perfect attendance, a Mason of the 32nd degree, member of the Sheraden United Methodist Church, and a member on various boards.

James was the definition of a life well spent, and an inspiration to many. He lived each day of his life with dignity, compassion, humility, kindness, and love. He went above and beyond to help and support his family, friends, and community, and never turned a blind eye to those in need. The positive impact that his life had on all those that knew him is undeniable. The world is a better place because he was in it, and his memory and legacy will live on always through his loved ones, and the good that he brought to this world.

Relatives and friends received Tuesday from 2-8 PM at the SCHEPNER-McDERMOTT FUNERAL HOME, INC., 165 Noble Ave. Pittsburgh, PA 15205. Funeral Service Wednesday, September 4, 2024, at 11 AM in Nativity Episcopal Church, Crafton.
