

JEFFREY WAYNE MARQUIS

Baldwin native, Jeffrey Wayne Marquis passed away. Recently of Plano, Texas, Jeff never lost his love for all of his hometown sports teams. An avid Steelers fan, he proudly wore his Steelers jersey in Cowboys saturated North Texas and on trips abroad. A graduate of University of Pittsburgh, Jeff also followed Panther football. Born the seventh of nine children, Jeff had a passion for life, family and his wife, Victoria. He lived life fully and wished for others to do so. His generous organ donation helped fulfill his wishes after his passing. Following a private ceremony at Jefferson Memorial cemetery, celebrate Jeff's life with his loving family at the Monkey Bar in South Hills on September 14, from 12:00 to 2:30pm.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Southwest Transplant Alliance. Southwest Transplant Alliance 8190 Mandeville Lane, Dallas, TX 75231 - stafoundation@organ.org

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb