

JUDITH ANN SPELL

Judith Ann Spell, 79, of White Oak, passed away Friday, September 13, 2024, peacefully at home during her nightly Jeopardy. Judy is the wife of the late Robert Spell; and beloved mother of Hilary Spell and the late James McCombs. She is survived by her brother and sisters-in-law, Edie (the late Jack) Spell and William and Debbie Spell; special niece, Bonnie (Dan) Weissert; nephews, Robert Riemenschneider, Jack (Karen) Spell, and Bill Spell; nieces, Jenna (Jay) Tewell and Lisa Spell; also great-nieces and nephews; great friends, Kathy Caparelli and Jan Stojanovic; godson, Craig Stojanovic. In addition to her parents, Clyde and Genevieve (Mellinger) Riemenschneider; she was preceded in death by her brothers, Ray and Clyde (the late Audrey) Riemenschneider. Judy was a graduate of McKeesport High School, class of 1962, and California University. She was proud of her career as an English Teacher for South Allegheny School District, and was a member of the McKeesport College Club and First Presbyterian Church in Duquesne. Special thank you to Karen from AHN Hospice, and the girls, Cindy, Dakota, Dolly, Norma, and Taya. Thank you for being there and helping her be at home. Friends will be received at the TEICHART-GRACAN FUNERAL HOME, Duquesne, on Monday from 2 to 8, and on Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church, from 10 to 11, at which time a funeral service will be held with Rev. Judy Slater. Interment following in Mt. Vernon Cemetery.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb