William David Terrell, Jr., of Eighty Four, PA, formerly of Cecil, passed away Sunday, September 15, 2024, at the young age of 67.

Bill was the best friend and beloved husband of Kathryn Duffill and stepfather to Andrew K. Brown (Stephanie); son of Joan Sias Terrell and the late William D. Terrell, Sr.; brother to Richard Terrell (Deceased), John E. Terrell (Elizabeth), Joseph M. Terrell and Pamela J. Cantolina (Bill).

Bill was a 1975 graduate of Canon McMillan High School and attended the University of Pittsburgh. He worked for several different companies over the years as a Project Manager. Bill had a passion for life, golfing with his besties, and traveling. He was fortunate to travel to Rome and was blessed by Pope Francis. He was an avid reader, and a math wizard. He was a diehard fan of the Pirates, and claimed to have a mixed marriage because he attended Pitt and his wife attended WVU. He was fun, kind, and caring. A friend to all he met. He had a great love for animals including our many cats and horses.

We will never forget his smiles, kindness, and witty sense of humor.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Allegheny Singer Research Institute, Cancer Research.

A memorial mass will be held at Corpus Christi Parish, St. Mary Church, 10 St. Mary Lane, Cecil, PA 15321 on Monday, September 23, 2024, at 10 AM.
