

ANDREW VINCENT MULE

September 11, 1938 - September 6, 2024

Andrew grew up in the West View neighborhood of Pittsburgh. He resided for the last 32 years in Cape Coral, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph Mule and Josephine Mule (nee Randazzo); his brother, Joseph Mule II; and his brother, Vincent Mule. He is survived by his sister, Antoinette (Nina) Mulè Lyons; and her husband, Joseph Lyons of Ross Township.

He is also survived by his wife, Rebecca Berio of Cape Coral, Florida; and his children, Joellen Rozier, Andrew Vincent Mulè; and stepchildren, Caryl Moulder, Carl Moulder and Jose Torres.

Andrew served in the Pennsylvania Army Air National Guard and retired honorably as a Technical Sergeant. He served, along with his brother Joseph, at the Nike site off Gass Road in Ross Township.

He was a gifted artist who, with his sister, studied traditional mosaic art production in Ravenna, Italy under the famed mosaicist Luciana Notturmi.

He was a well-known community leader in Pine Island, Florida. He initiated and organized the "pole painting" project that is now a Pine Island trademark.

His interment and memorial are private.
