

TeleTracking Technologies, Inc. has an opening for Manager, Software Engineering in Pittsburgh, PA. Job duties include: Lead developing software products at scale to enable business transformation through technology that delivers critical data for analytical and logistics capabilities to our customers. Have end-to-end technical ownership of a product including resource management and allocation and overall project management responsibilities. May telecommute. To apply send resume to telerecruiting@teletracking.com. Must reference job 10950.67.7.