

KATHRYN ANN ALEXANDER

Age 71, of Robinson Township, passed away on September 19, 2024. She was born in Pittsburgh, PA on August 13, 1953. Kathryn was a devoted mother to her twin daughters, Amber (Richard) Alexander and Brooke Alexander-Barbian, and cherished grandmother to her grandson, Jacob Barbian.

Kathryn was known for her passion for reading, researching genealogy and her love of music, often spending her days immersed in books or enjoying her favorite tunes. She loved engaging in meaningful conversations about current events and cherished the time she spent chatting with close friends and beloved family members. Her enthusiasm for reading left a lasting legacy, instilling a profound love of books in her daughters.

Kathryn is survived by her mother, Bernadette (the late John) Alexander; her brothers, John (Kathy) Alexander and Duncan (Robin) Alexander; her daughters; and her grandson, Jacob. Additionally, she leaves behind two nephews and a host of cousins who will remember her warmth and kindness. Kathryn's spirit and love for life will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Private arrangements were entrusted to PITTSBURGH CREMATION & FUNERAL CARE, Robinson Township, PA.
