

CHARLES PLEZIA

"Chuck, Chuckie, Charlie" age 58, passed away early Thursday morning, at St. Clair Hospital, with Pam and their four sons, there with him. He died from a blocked artery that burst, which stemmed from his heart condition.

Chuck was born September 15, 1966, in Pittsburgh, PA. He spent a few years living in Georgia and then returned home and married the love of his life, Pam Moore. They raised four amazing sons together, while Chuck grew a prosperous home remodeling business for the next 35 years. He was brilliant in his work and he taught his boys all he knew about the business, the most valuable thing he taught them was how to be a good man. He taught them to be kind, loving, caring, respectful and hard-working. These were the pillars that made Chuck "The Man" he was and always will be in their hearts. Chuck was the guy that held the door for a woman, he helped an elderly man or woman across the street, he was always willing to help anyone that needed help and he fathered all his sons' friends, as if they were his own.

He loved spending time with his boys. He looked forward to Sunday dinners. He enjoyed fishing, going to the shooting range, hitting golf balls, visiting his aunts and uncles in Florida, going to the beach, going on cruises and watching the Steeler games with his boys. Chuck was the perfect example of a true family man. Everything he did was for them.

He is predeceased by his mom, Nancy Boscia Nowacki; his uncle, Walt; aunt, Sophie, aunt Ann and Kay; and his very best buddy, Raven. He is survived by his dad, Carl Nowacki; his ex-wife/bff, Pam Moore; his four sons, Doug, Shane, Bryan, Michael; and their beautiful ladies; his brothers, Eddie, Joey, Michael "Bopper," Butchie; his sister, Margaret; 19 nieces and nephews, 27 great-nieces and nephews and a plethora of friends that will miss him forever.
