

NANCY A. (MECHLING) JOHNSON

Age 84, of Wexford, passed away on September 22, 2024. She was born in Natrona Heights to the late Paul and Elma (Nulty) Mechling. She was the beloved wife of the late Michael Johnson who passed away in 1994. Donald "Red" Limegrover was a long-time companion to Nancy.

Nancy was the loving mother of Brad Johnson and Gregg Johnson; mother-in-law to Lori and Nana to Kyra and Kenneth, mother-in-law to Sarah and Nana to Benjamin, Alyse, Grace; sister of Paula Young (Knox) and sister of the late Janet Phillips (Robert).

Nancy graduated from Har-Brack High School in 1957 and Indiana State Teachers College in 1961. She had a gift for teaching whether it was as a young elementary school teacher, as a mom at home reading with her sons, or when she returned to the classroom as a special education instructor. As an adult, she loved tennis, swimming, and supporting her sons in all their activities. In her later years, she transitioned to volunteering, visiting with friends, and participating in book clubs. Retirement years afforded her the ability to travel particularly to warm climates which she loved.

Nancy spent the last several years receiving loving care at Concordia of Cranberry and her last days surrounded by friends and family at the Good Samaritan Hospice house until God called her home.
