

CAROL LEE PIERCE

Carol Lee Pierce, 89, of New Castle, died Thursday, September 19, 2024. She was born in New Castle, December 4, 1934, the daughter of the late Hazel and Frank Miller. She was the beloved wife of Eugene Pierce for more than 69 years. She enjoyed baking, especially at Christmas time, with her family. She also enjoyed line dancing, going to Challenges, and playing cards with friends. She will be remembered as matriarch of the Pierce family and a strong woman of faith.

She is survived by her husband, Eugene; and three daughters, Linda Bressler and her husband Ed, Lori Crilley and her husband Gary, and Sherri Muster and her husband Randy; her grandchildren, Amy Brown and family, Sara Kaufman and family, Kaylee Muster, Loren Muster, Reena Fullmer and family, Autumn Mihelich and family, and Amber Martin and family; and nine great-grandchildren.

She will be missed by her friends in New Castle, West Mifflin, Florida, and Prince Gallitzin where she and her husband spent many happy years. A celebration of life will be announced at a later date.
