Gladys lived during the Great Depression, World War II rationing years and graduated from South Hills High School, Class of June 1949. She was a choir member of Haven Episcopal Methodist Church on Oneida street, where she married Robert Jefferson Flynn, Jr., on November 14, 1953.

As a Navy wife, she had multiple residences, including Philadelphia, PA and Norfolk, VA. She worked as a receptionist, telephone operator and file clerk, before having children. Gladys returned to Pittsburgh in 1965, where she became a Boy Scout Den Mother, Girl Scout Leader, babysitter at the YWCA and churches. She delivered meals for four years and served as secretary for 18 years for the Shannon Meals on Wheels program. A member of Castle Shannon United Methodist Church, she taught Sunday School, served on many committees and sat as Chairlady of the Prayer Chain and President of the United Methodist Women. Additionally, she contributed to World Day of Prayer services for Church Women United for 30 years.

In 1999, Gladys was a finalist for and ultimately was awarded and recognized as the South Hills Area Citizen of the Year. She enjoyed modeling at fashion shows organized by The Sociables; performing for churches, senior citizen centers and military reunion functions. She was a member of Fairhaven United Methodist Church. In her personal life, she passionately enjoyed photography, cooking and traveling. Her pleasant personality will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
