

JANE CARLENE (PATCYK) GRIMES

Age 73, of Canonsburg, originally of Freeport, on Friday, September 27, 2024, passed away unexpectedly while on vacation in New England, which was a place she had always wanted to visit in autumn.

Jane was the beloved wife of 23 years to Michael J. Grimes; devoted mother of Tracey (Brian) Ruffner; loving stepmother of John (Micki) Grimes; adoring grandmother of Jordyn, Colin, and Conner

Ruffner, and Vale, George, and Jack Grimes; dear sister of Sandy (Jan) Lysakowski, Jackie (the late Ron) Mazurek, Tom (Gwen) Patcyk, and the late Kathy (the late Paul) Evans. Jane is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her loving parents Stanley and Sophie (Zielinski) Patcyk.

Jane was a 1968 graduate of Kittanning High School. She was a member of the drill team and served as their captain her senior year. She then went on to enjoy a long career as an executive assistant in the financial service industry.

She very much enjoyed her retirement, which allowed her to spend more time with her grandchildren. Jane loved traveling, especially to the beach, and relaxing with a glass of wine. She was an amazing decorator, spectacular cook, had a wonderful sense of humor, loved to laugh, had a deep faith, and will be remembered for her beautiful, radiant smile.
