Senior Consultant-Application Development

Build and unit test inbound/outbound Eagle data interfaces to specifications, as determined by functional and business requirements; Assist with Eagle and related data integration and data harmonization objectives associated with the project; Provide Eagle technical support for any project work into and out of Eagle; Assist with Eagle application design objectives; Support test planning and execution across all stages of testing; Identify risks and issues related to the project; escalate to project manager; recommend action plan(s) to resolve issues; Assist with business-as-usual (BAU) on an as-needed basis, including Eagle support and maintenance; Expand Federated's internal expertise and knowledge-base through specific technical training and on-the-job efforts; Work collaboratively with Federated and any third-party project team members to support all Program activities. Mail resumes to Visvero Inc. 40 N Main Street, Washington, PA 15301