

HAROLD DUNCAN TAYLOR III

Surrounded by loved ones, Harold Duncan Taylor III, of Peters Township, joined his beloved wife, Diane Hrycko Taylor, in eternal paradise, October 7, 2024. Duncan was born on February 16, 1952, in Pittsburgh, PA.

Duncan is survived by his sons, Dylan (Kayelin Buffington) and Derek (Cayla Popp); siblings, Megan (Joseph DeSantola), Michael (Valorie Taylor), and Adana (Peter Kirk).

He was preceded in death by his soulmate, Diane; his sister, Deborah Copeland (John Copeland); his father, Harold Duncan Taylor, Jr.; and his mother, Gwen C. Taylor.

For over 50 years, Duncan was a valued member of the sales team at CurranTaylor, Inc. He donated tremendously to the Wounded Warrior Project, Tunnel to Towers Foundation, and many other charitable causes. He was a dedicated member of his parish at St. John XXIII.

Duncan loved the outdoors, telling stories, spending time with his sons, and ocean fishing in the Outer Banks, NC.

Duncan will be truly missed by all who had the honor of knowing him.

All those who love him are welcomed to his celebration of life on October 13, 2024, at PITTSBURGH CREMATION AND FUNERAL CARE. Visitation: 1:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests a donation be made in Duncan's honor to the American Cancer Society.
