

LAYLA M. DAYTON

Layla M. Dayton, age 20, of Kennedy Township, PA, passed away surrounded by family, and in her mother's arms, on Friday, October 11, 2024. Born on May 4, 2004, in Pittsburgh, PA, she is the loving daughter of Sandy Dayton; cherished granddaughter of Ed and Kathy Dayton; niece of Sarah (Mike) Rudolph and Rebecca (Justin) McCartney; honorary granddaughter of George and Billie Dayton; cousin of Ian Rudolph; also tremendously loved and missed by many family members and friends.

While Layla's journey wasn't always easy, she always remained sassy and strong. She took every health obstacle that life threw at her head on. She was your true definition of a bad ass. She often can be heard before even being seen with her famous "HELLO!"

She was sassy, and spunky, and had the best smile. People gravitated towards her because of her "amazingly obnoxious" personality. She was the epitome of sugar and spice.

Layla loved a good day out, shopping at Target, and anytime spent with her mum. She loved music and, even in her wheelchair, had the best dance moves.

She attended the Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children where she developed many special friendships, and thrived with the guidance of so many staff. She loved her school days and especially the bus rides! Layla also lived at PSC (Pediatric Specialty Care) for the last two years, where she continued to win over more hearts. She was met there with care and compassion, and it really felt like home to Layla.

Layla's family is forever grateful to the staff at the Western Pennsylvania School for Blind Children, Pediatric Specialty Care at Hopewell, McGuire Memorial, and Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh.

Family and friends will gather on Wednesday, October 16, 2024, from 1:00 pm-8:00 pm, and on Thursday, October 17, 2024, from 10:00 am-12:00 pm, followed by, at 12:00 pm, funeral service at PITTSBURGH CREMATION AND FUNERAL CARE, 5405 Steubenville Pike, Robinson Township, PA 15136. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in honor of Layla to Western Pennsylvania School For Blind Children, 201 N. Bellefield Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15213 at <http://wpsbcfoundation.org>.
