

TOM KINDLING

Of Turtle Creek, age 74, died on Saturday, October 12, 2024.

Tom was the beloved husband of the late Marilyn (Rubash) Kindling for 38 years.

He is survived by his siblings, Judy (Harry) Karavlan of Penn Hills, Janet (late David) Knowlton of Cranberry, Mary (Joe) Owens of Chalfant, and John (Diane) Kindling of Chalfant.

Tom was preceded in death by his parents, Alexander T. Kindling and Agnes (Flaherty)

Kindling Henkel; and his siblings, William (late Debbie) Kindling, Patricia Kindling, and Terry Kindling.

Tom is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Tom was a 1968 graduate of Churchill High School and earned an Associate's degree from Allegheny County Community College. His career was centered at his family's manufacturing firm, Atomatic, located in Chalfant, where Tom was a machinist, foreman and part-owner.

There will not be a visitation or service.

Tom will be privately interred with Marilyn at Grandview Cemetery.

Send condolences post-gazette.com/gb