

Genie In A Bottle

It was one of the garage sale items

And spotted at a nearby table

A passerby had stopped and noticed

And knew he was ready and able

Purchased it and took it home

Believing in all it could be

He rubbed it and the Genie
popped out

Asking what his wish would be

He answered without hesitation

"Bring back my long deceased wife"

And all of a sudden in a flash

She'd been brought right back to life

He hugged her and wept like a child

Embraced and kissed her soft cheek

And like a bolt of lightning
she was gone

Knowing again someday
they would meet
